Aloha Hualalai Homeowners,

Hualalai and The Junior Board of the Hualalai Ohana Foundation will be hosting The Paint Run (a spin off on a Color Run™) this festive season! Proceeds will be donated to the foundation. This is a non-competitive 5k Run/Walk event full of music, color and excitement! This is the first time a run of its kind will take place on the Big Island, so come join us in this ground breaking event! The whole world is talking about how much fun these races are!

Participants will receive a t-shirt, sunglasses, and bandana. The color is a cornstarch-based product which contains no irritant to the eye. Please remember, anything that enters an eye may irritate, but there is no irritating chemical or dye in the corn starch. The color is washable, but may stain slightly. We recommend wearing the race t-shirt and other apparel you don't mind getting stained. Aid stations will have disposable face wipes along with water.

We need your support in underwriting this event, volunteering at the event and most importantly participating. Volunteers can help at aid stations, food stations, and as road guards. In addition, you can volunteer at color stations where you will be throwing the color onto the Paint Run participants.

With questions or donations, please contact Alana Dreimann at alanaemail@aol.com or the Hualalai Ohana Foundation at 808-325-4701.

Mahalo and don't forget to reserve your spot now and sign up!
